Haddiport House, originally several farm-workers cottages, dates from the middle of the 18th Century and although the house has undergone extensive renovation, echoes of its past still remain to delight the visitor.

Set among rolling fields close to the attractive village of Shebbear, and down its own quiet track, Haddiport House provides the perfect retreat from the noise and stress of modern life. Situated only a few miles from the Tarka Trail, a long distance cycle and footpath trail, and within 10 miles of the picturesque north Devon coast, the comfortable en-suite bedrooms offer the chance to relax for a short break or to enjoy a longer stay.

Visitors can take advantage of the many local bridle paths to enjoy spectacular views, while Dartmoor offers a more rugged terrain to enjoy. Nearby Great Torrington is home to RHS Garden Rosemoor and Dartington Glass, both open all year round.

Accommodation is provided in a large family room with king sized bed and modern en-suite shower room, or twin bedded room also with en-suite shower, both on the first floor.

Later in the year a ground floor twin bedded room adapted for full disabled access with integral wet-room will be available for guests use.

All the rooms have tea and coffee making facilities and colour television sets with DVD players, films and books are available for you to borrow during your stay. Upon your arrival a Devon cream tea will be waiting to welcome you, while fresh local produce and eggs from the resident chickens are used in the breakfast menu. Packed lunches can be provided if requested, but please advise us of any special dietary needs when booking.

We look forward to welcoming you to Devon and to your first stay at Haddiport House
